

Subject: KS3 Citizenship

Year	Content of the Curriculum	Additional Resources to aid Learning e.g. web links, guided reading
7	Students are introduced to the notion of Citizenship and what it means to be a citizen in relation to a local, national and international context. Students examine three units, British Identity, Government and Active Citizenship and within their studies, develop their thinking processes and opinions on the political and every day running of the world around them. 8	Students continue to develop their points of view and opinions about the world around them through exploring the themes of Laws and Human Rights. Topical and relevant examples from today are brought in to the classroom to help students debate and discuss the impact it has on not just the people who are experiencing the event, but the community and world around them.	Politics: https://www.parliament.uk/education/ Laws: http://www.parliament.uk/education/about-your-parliament/how-laws-are-made/ Human Rights: https://www.equalityhumanrights.com/en/human-rights/human-rights-act
9	Students continue to broaden their knowledge of local, national and global issues and current affairs. Throughout the first term, the main focus of study is finance where students have explored the difference between wants and needs, consumer rights and responsibilities, the complaints procedure and making their own voices heard on financial matters. In term two and three, the themes of democracy and its implication are examined linking to topic themes and relevant issues of human rights and free speech.
